Chancery Causes: A. J. Collier vs. Elizabeth Collier

Shoop

CA-Divorce

Virginia

Lee Circuit Court

To the Honorable Wm. Morrison Judge of the said Court in chancery.

Your Orator R. D. Collier a citizen of Lee County, humbly complaining Sheweth unto the Court.

In the year 1878 he intermarried with one Elizabeth Shoop, with whom he lived in happiness till the year 1881 when your orator became apprised of her inconstancy, and severed the marital relation and connection with the said Elizabeth, and has never since recognized her, or had sexual coition with her, there was born of this marriage one child, now living and about 6 years old.

Your orator charges the crime of adultery against the said Elizabeth.

In tender consideration whereof, your orator prays an absolute divorce from the said Elizabeth, and that she be required to answer the allegation of adultery against her, and for general relief.
